

Leadership isn't just about making deals. It's about making change.

The Washington, DC region is one of the most complex metropolitan areas in the world. Diverse. Dynamic. And too often, divided.

Leadership Greater Washington is the DC area's premier leadership incubator because we see beyond the divisions that hold our region back, cultivating progress from common ground. We bring together our most visionary influencers across professions and geographies to unite them for a shared purpose: taking on the DC region's toughest problems.

Through our programs, visionary influencers:

- Are immersed in our region's toughest issues
- Learn from other regional leaders and community partners, and from one another
- Share space and exchange experience
- Nurture growth with authenticity, trust, and deep respect
- Build connections that facilitate positive change in our region

Join us to connect great minds for a greater purpose.
