

SIGNATURE PROGRAM

ABOUT THE SIGNATURE PROGRAM

Since 1986, Leadership Greater Washington (LGW) has developed over 2,000 executive leaders from DC, Northern Virginia, and Suburban Maryland through its flagship offering, the Signature Program — an intensive 10-month program that exposes professionals to regional civic issues through education, connection, and knowledge sharing.

BENEFITS OF THE SIGNATURE PROGRAM

Through the Signature Program, participants will:

Gain access to LGW's membership base of over 2,000 regional visionary influencers

Build a network of diverse, authentic relationships from all sectors and a variety of industries

Leverage collective resources to make the Greater Washington region a more dynamic and collaborative community

Identify community challenges and solutions in the region

APPLICATION

LGW Class of 2024 applications open on January 9. There is a $250 non-refundable application fee.

Visit www.lgwdc.org/signature-program for more information.

President & Chief Executive Officer,
United Way of the National Capital Area

“When I think of Leadership Greater Washington, it really is lifelong friendships but it's also meaningful connections in terms of the work that has to be done. For many of the toughest challenges facing this region, someone from Leadership Greater Washington is going to be a part of those conversations and that speaks to the value that Leadership Greater Washington brings.”

David Gorodetski ('15)
Co-Founder, COO and Executive Creative Director
Sage Communications

“I truly believe that LGW is the best professional networking organization in the Washington metropolitan region. With strong leadership, an engaged board, amazingly dedicated staff, and alumni made of the region's most prominent leaders, we are committed to making the Washington region a more dynamic and collaborative community as we embrace and value the diversity – geography, people, sectors, and professions – of our region.”
